

SARAH L. HOLDEN
Associate

501.379.1752 Telephone
sholden@QGTLAW.com

Bankruptcy and Debtor/Creditor Rights
Business & Complex Commercial Litigation

Sarah Holden is a litigation associate with Quattlebaum, Grooms & Tull PLLC, with an emphasis on debtor/creditor rights and bankruptcy litigation.

Ms. Holden earned her Juris Doctor from the University of Arkansas at Little Rock William H. Bowen School of Law in 2024, graduating magna cum laude, where she served as an Articles Editor for the UA Little Rock Law Review and as a Staff Editor for the Arkansas Journal for Social Change and Public Service. While in law school, Ms. Holden externed with the Honorable Phyllis Jones, Chief Judge of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern and Western Districts of Arkansas, and with the National Center for State Courts, where she clerked for the Conference of Chief Justices.

Ms. Holden earned her Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from the University of Central Arkansas where she graduated magna cum laude.

Prior to law school, Ms. Holden worked as a business analyst in the employee benefits space and with the Arkansas Administrative Office of the Courts.

Publications

Rewarding Repayment: Removing the Fear from Crushing Student Loan Debt, 46 UA Little Rock L. Rev. 83 (2023).

In Defense of Our Right to Know, Ark. J. Soc. Change & Pub. Serv. Blog (Sept. 25, 2023).

New Student Loan Discharge Guidance: The Winds of Change or Lipstick on a Pig?, Ark. J. Soc. Change & Pub. Serv. Blog (Apr. 10, 2023).

President Biden's Student Loan Forgiveness Announcement: "Fixing" Income-Driven Repayment Plans, Ark. J. Soc. Change & Pub. Serv. Blog (Sept. 12, 2022).

Education

University of Arkansas at Little Rock William H. Bowen School of Law (J.D., magna cum laude, 2024)

UA Little Rock Law Review, Articles Editor

Arkansas Journal for Social Change and Public Service, Staff Editor

University of Central Arkansas (B.A., magna cum laude, 2011)