Business Transactions
Taxation & Estate Planning

MiKayla Jayroe is a transactional associate with Quattlebaum, Grooms & Tull PLLC in the firm's Northwest Arkansas office. MiKayla focuses her practice on business transactions, estate planning, and taxation.

Born and raised in Russellville, Arkansas, MiKayla earned her J.D., magna cum laude, from the University of Arkansas School of Law in 2024. During law school, she served as an Articles Editor on the Arkansas Law Review and was honored with the Judge Thomas F. Butt Legal Excellence Award for Legal Research and Writing. She also served as a teaching assistant for Professor Danielle Weatherby's Legal Research and Writing course. As Brief Writer on the school's Traveling Moot Court Team, she contributed to a third-place finish for Best Brief at the 2024 American Bar Association National Appellate Advocacy Competition's Regional Tournament in Los Angeles, California. Additionally, MiKayla was actively involved in leadership and advocacy, serving as Faculty Liaison for the Student Bar Association, a member of the Board of Advocates, and a recipient of the Rafaelli-Lienberger Public Service Fellowship in 2022.

Following law school, MiKayla pursued advanced legal studies at the University of Florida Levin College of Law, where she earned her Master of Laws degree in Taxation in 2025. While at Florida, MiKayla served as a Graduate Editor on the Florida Tax Review and received the Dean's Leadership Award.

MiKayla holds a Bachelor of Arts in History and Political Science, graduating summa cum laude from Arkansas Tech University in 2021. During her undergraduate years, MiKayla participated in the University Honors Program and Student Government Association.
